ILLEGAL SLAUGHTER OF CATTLE DECREASESILLEGAL MEAT GOES TO INSTITUTIONS -- Trybuna Ludu, No 178, 1 Jul 49

In an effort to stamp out the illegal slaughter of cattle, important results have been achieved by the inspectors of slaughter houses in the city and in the rural areas. About 2,000 kilograms of illegally slaughtered meat have been collected. The meat which could be used was distributed among charitable institutions and the rest destroyed.

Compared with April, trade in illegally slaughtered meat decreased by 4,000 kilograms.

MORE RURAL COMMUNITIES ELECTRIFIED -- Trybuna Ludu, No 171, 24 Jun 49

The 1949 plan provides for electrification of 31 rural communities in Krakow Wojewodztwo and further development of the electric network system in 25 other rural communities.

In Rzeszow Wojewodztwo, 12 rural communities will be electrified and 14 others will expand their present electric network system.

According to the state investments within the 6-year plan, 925 rural communities in Krakow and Rzeszow wojewodztwos will be electrified during the plan.

FLAX PLANTATIONS INCREASE -- Trybuna Ludu, No 178, 1 Jul 49

The cultivation of flax is increasing in Bialystok, Bielsk Elk, Suwalki, and Lomza. Last year there were only 8,000 planters, and the area under contract was 2,000 hectares. This year the number of planters has increased to 30,000, and 7,000 hectares have been brought under contract.
